CELEBRATIONS OF LIFE

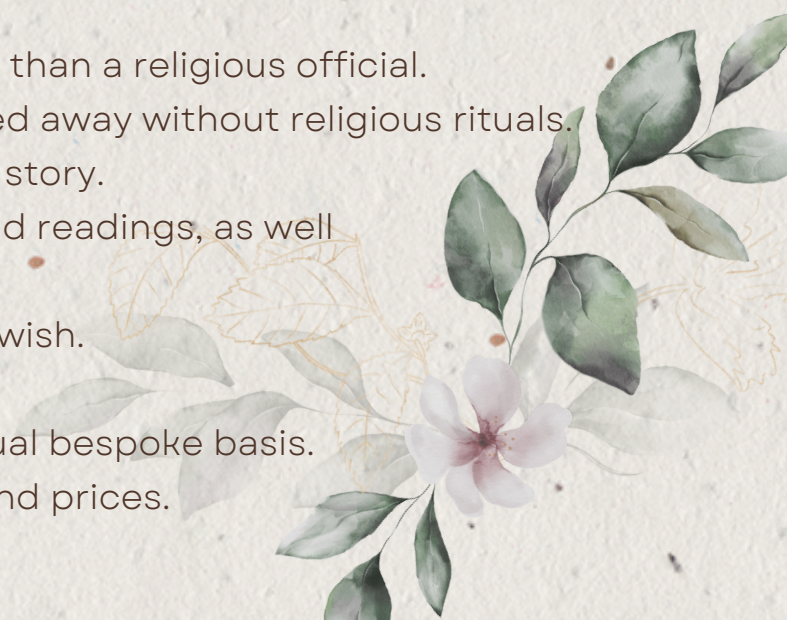

Here at the castle, our family & caring team would like to offer our condolences, on your beavrement of your loved one.
We hope that we can ease your burden, if only a little by recognising the importance of providing you and your family with a sympathetic, discreet & efficient service

We offer Remembrance Services in our Castle Chapel, which is fully deconsecrated.
Funeral ceremonies conducted by humanist celebrants are both a celebration of a life and a dignified, distinctive farewell.
They're the perfect option for families who want a sincere, personal reflection on the life of their loved one.
This can be especially important if the person who passed away wasn't particularly religious.

A humanist non - religious funeral is led by a celebrant, rather than a religious official.
It is a testament to a unique life. It honours the person who has passed away without religious rituals.
Focusing on them as an individual and their story.
Humanist funerals often include non - religious music and readings, as well as time for reflection.

They can be as traditional, or not , as you wish.

All Remembrance services are dealt with on an individual bespoke basis.
Feel free to contact us for more information and prices.

Raise a Glass

Celebrate your loved one, maybe they were a real ale fan, or liked nothing more than a nice cup of tea. Perhaps they had a favourite spirit – if so, why not offer your guests a shot of whisky, gin, vodka or whatever tippie they liked, as a toast to remember them by.
